

I think the Do Not Call law for oNew Jersey should stay as is. I was so sick of receiving calls from telemarketers and now I receive almost no calls. Keep it the way it is. If someone did business with a company and wants to do company that business relationship, let them contact the company not the other way around.